REPORT

Winning draw against the second promoted side Redbourn last week, another one this week against the League One winners St Albans this week as we failed to bowl them out again. Batting first Hemel made it to 193 - 8 from their allowed 60 overs with Brett Penny leading from the top with 46 followed by 31 from Matt Parkins at no. 7 and 23 from Jack Doodson and a lengthy 22 from Tom Elborn. Not a mammoth score but it proved too much for St Albans who only managed 163 - 9 in reply. Darren James took out their top 3 batters in the first 20 overs to leave them at 53 - 3. Then as their innings progressed Matt Parkins stepped in with 4 - 24 from 11 overs to take out batsmen 5 - 8. 149 - 8 with 6 overs to go and although the returning Darren James managed to snaffle their no. 9 caught behind too little time to get the last wicket so another winning draw. 6th place in the Championship at the halfway point.
