REPORT

Same as last year Hemel beat Preston at their place earlier in the year and then lose at home to them in the reverse fixture. Rain effected match when it got going with the side batting first, (Preston), getting 37 overs and the chasing side, (Hemel), getting 33 to chase them. Hemel had kept Preston pretty well under control with their score being 113 - 3 after 27 overs. Preston then put a spurt on scoring 73 runs for the lose of 4 more wickets in their last 10 overs. Wickets fairly evenly split for Hemel's bowlers with Billy Jones and Parth Mehta getting a couple each. Losing Matt Parkins to the 5th ball of the reply wasn't the greatest of starts and at the start of the last hour with what was 17 overs to come Hemel were 74 - 4 needing 113 for victory. They didn't get there with attempts by Brett Penny (37), James Potton (33) and Billy Jones (28) trying to get there it proved too much and Hemel had to opt for a losing draw with a score of 158 - 8.
