REPORT

You could say Hemel II had done the hard work by getting Ricky out for 185 in 42 overs. But Ricky showed why this win has moved them up to 2nd in the division and promotion place, 69 points ahead of Bushey in 3rd place. They chipped away at the Hemel batting until only skipper Brad Finch was left carrying the chase with 53. Hemel had rain reduced 42 overs to get their target and despite early wicket loses when Finch and Charlie Hoskins (27) were together for the 6th wicket the watching crowd thought the win was still on. But Charlies demise with the score on 110 left too much for Finch and the lower order to stay in and chase. Hemel ended up losing by 17 runs and rest in 5th place in the league.
