REPORT

Try as they did with on & off sessions between the passing showers this game had to be finally curtailed before the required 25 overs had been bowled in the last innings, thus making this an incomplete game. Top of the table clash at that with Brentham top with 3 wins out of 3 and 12 points and Hemel 3rd with 3 wins out of 4 with also 12 points. Put in to bat by Brentham Hemel had struggled to 92 - 4 after 22 overs but thr middle order batsmen inserted a bit of momentum to the innings to get it moving. Max Clark held it together with 40* from no.5 but Ed Pike struck 64 from 55 balls and Charlie Hoskins hit 3X6s in his 25 from 21 balls and Hemel got up to 242 - 6 from their 45 overs. At the same point of 22 overs Brentham were slightly ahead of Hemel in runs at 120 but had lost one more wicket in 5. Persistant rain shower interruptions finally proved too much as the rain set in and the game was called to an end as incomplete.
