REPORT

A somewhat weakened and short of numbers because of cup commitments Harrow Town proved easy pickings for Hemel Sunday 1st XI and 4 chess Valley League points. Decided star for the day was Ed Pike who scored 130 in 107 balls with 12X4 and 3X6. Built around that Phil Smith at the top made 41 and further down Charlie Hoskins hit 21 in 12 balls and Will Hodgins ended on 28* from 17 balls. Although the top of the Harrow Town order looked stylish, few Middlesex young cricketer jerseys going around before game, and their openers put on 52 for the first wicket, Hemel's bowling and their lack of numbers told in the end. Billy Jones picked up 3 - 59 from opening the bowling and Jacob Hodgins 2 - 42 to finish the innings off.
