REPORT

Hemel Sunday 2nds returned to their CVL winning ways with a 139 run win over Hillingdon Manor. Highlight of the Hemel batting was the 102 for Young Max Clark, his first senior cricket weekend century of his career. That better his 70* earlier in the season for the 3rd XI on a Saturday. With Charlie Hoskins chipping in with 46, Aaron Wilson with 36 and Will Langley with 36 Hemel amassed 276 - 6 from their 45 overs. Tough total to chase. Although Hillingdon Manor started off quite brightly and had reached 80 - 1 in 12 overs once Dil Khan had removed their 2nd & 3rd batsmen the stage was set for Ajay Savania to come to the fore and turn in 10 - 0 - 21 - 6 which blew the bottom section of the Hillingdon innings away. That as with Max Clark was his first 5 wicket haul for a senior Hemel side on a weekend and not just a 5 fer but a 6 fer. 4 points in the CVL Div. 4 for Hemel Sunday 2nds.
