REPORT

Bit of a trouncing by Flitwick who consolidated their place at 2nd in the Championship. Batting first Hemel had brought in Aaron Wilson opening and top scoring on 67 and Australian Billy Jones batting at 3 with 38 to thank for putting on 83 to get Hemel to 110 - 2 by the 40th over. Slow progress but the only other batsman to hit double figures was Matt Parkins at no.7 with 34. The Hemel innings collapsed away to 180 all out with Flitwick spinner Joe Lowe picking up 5 - 53. Things looked up for Hemel with Darren James removing Nabil Moughal with the 6th ball of their first over. But that was as good as it got as their South African all rounder Morne Venter struck 84 fro 68 balls to fire Flitwick along in pursuit of their total. They reached 182 - 3 in just 31.3 overs and Hemel slipped down to just above the relegation positions after St Albans had a big win against Broxbourne. Home game against bottom side Reed next weekend in a 'must win' game.
