REPORT

Mid table clash towards the end of the season and Totteridge Millhillians II widen the gap from their position in 5th to 34 points above 6th placed Hemel II. Hemel had beaten Tott Mill at their ground back in June so they repaid the favour this time around. Freddie Lowe (3 - 29) and Charlie Hoskins (3 - 27) had taken out the top end of the Tott Mill order but their lower batsmen were able to put some scores together to get them over the 200 mark from their 50 overs. The Hemel batting in reply had several players getting in but then getting out once they were in their teens. Skipper Brad Finch top scored on 28 and wicket keeper Tom Willetts ended on 23* but 17 fro Dil Khan, 12 from Charlie Hoskins, 11 from Stan Hayden and 10 from Max Clark were all examples of getting in then getting out when in double figures. Hemel all out for 123 to lose by 81 runs.
