REPORT

Whilst Storm Antoni removed any chance of club cricket on Saturday Hemel Sunday 1st XI were able to entertain the assembled crowds with a nail-biting one wicket win over South Hampstead in the Chess Valley League Div. 1 game on Sunday. The win ensured their 2nd place in the division with 3 games to play, all against bottom half of the division sides. Putting South Hams in it took 5 overs before skipper of the day Will Hodgins claimed the first wicket with the score on 26. Opener Shah Rukh Khan stayed until he was 6th out for a score of 50 and only wicketkeeper Shah Ahmed with 28 was able to break into the 20's. Spinners Jacob Hogins (3 - 44) and Ed Pike (3 - 10) were able to run through the rest of the South Hams. Batting to bowl them out for 147. Hemel's reply stuttered to say the best with only 49 from opener Aaron Wilson making any impression. Will Hodgins (18) and Charlie Hoskins (11) got the score up to 139 for the 8th wicket but when both were out on that score it was left to no.10 Ajay Savania and no. 11 Jacob Hodgins to save the day. For 4 overs they nudged & nerlded the runs to get to the point Jacob (5*) could push a 2 into mid wicket to win the game. He and Ajay (3*) were heroes of the night.
