REPORT

A somewhat weaker than normal Hemel Sunday 1st XI lost away at UCS Gowers in the Chess Valley League Div. 1 and in doing so lost whatever chance they may have had of winning the division this year as Brentham beat Eastcote at the same time to seal them as division champions. UCS batted first and made 206 - 8 from their 45 overs thanks to their skipper L Rehman (74) and no. 6 S Giacopazzi (42). Ajay Savania (3 - 22) led the Hemel bowlers and the young leggie Rushil Dodhia turned in 2 - 45. 207 for a win not out of the question and openers Ed Pike (39) and Lutero Corrigan (42) set them on the way with an opening stand of 78 in 26 overs. But the next 'big' score did not come with the batting slightly weaker. Aaron Wilson (22) and Charlie Hoskins (20) tried to get things along but in the end the chase was too much and Hemel ended on 189 - 8 to lose by 17 runs. Still in 2nd place with 2 games to go but unable to get to first.
