REPORT

So the saga goes on until the last weekend, Hemel needing at least 4 points from their last game to ensure staying up in the Championship. That, of course, requires Redbourn to win their last game. As it stands Hemel are at home to St. Albans next week who they had a winning draw against over at Clarence Park earlier in the season and Redbourn are away against Championship leaders, and already promoted, Shenley Village who have lost just one game this season. One has to have confidence, but you never know.

This game Hemel won toss and batted and were bowled out for 152 in 39 overs. Brett Penny top scored with 45 at the top and Hem Ilangaratne scored 23 but nobody else set the world alight with run scoring. Hemel managed 4.3 overs with Parth Mehta snarring their skipper LBW for 6. 17 - 1 and that was it with the weather, 10 points each.
