REPORT

A reasonably strong Hemel Sunday 1st XI saw off Boxmoor Sunday XI with some ease as the Heath Park witnessed it's first senior cricket game of the 2024 season. Batting first Ed Pike (46) and new Aussie overseas player Harry Ganley (68) just managed to miss a century opening partnership with the first wicket going down on 99. The following batters kept the 6 an over momentum going and Hemel ended their 40 overs on 243 - 3.

Boxmoor got off to a disastrous start losing their first 2 wickets in the first couple of overs of their reply and were 13 - 3 after the first 5 overs. From then on it was chipping away at the wickets, Ganley showed his all round capabilities with 2 - 12, skipper Will Hodgins brought himself on late to snaffle 2 - 7 and youngster opening bowler Lucas Bertin took 2 - 28 from his 8 overs.

Satisfactory run out for all involved in first home game of season.
