REPORT

First game of the new 2024 league season and Hemel V managed to squeeze in a narrow 1 wicket win to get things going. Northwood won the toss and batted and some tight Hemel bowling kept their score down to 144 - 7 from their 40 overs. Star of the show was U-13 Tyler James, taking some tips from his dad Darren, turning in 3 - 4 from 6 overs. Seb Freethy was the other star taking 2 - 12 from his 6 overs. Hemel started well with openers Phil Smith and Matt Scears both scoring 32 as they put on 60 for the first wicket. Things got a bit sticky then and wickets tumbled until U-14 Seb Freethy starred again scoring 21* to see Hemel over the line with 5 balls to go.
