REPORT

Flitwick, who are top of the Championship, are a side Hemel always seem to have difficulties with. Only beaten them once in last 8 years, back in 2021 at home, with also only a couple of draws to show. Another double header defeat this year having lost the first home game of the season to them back in May. Hemel won the toss and batted but only the top three batsmen made it to double figures. Brett Penny (16), Hemish Ilangaratne (46) and Harry Ganley (37). Then nothing as Hemel slipped from 91 - 2 from 27 overs to 128 all out in 46 overs. The destroyer for Flitwick was Nathan Healey with 7 - 46 from 17 overs. Hemel bowlers tried with newcomer naturalised Aussie Jamie Bach turning in 4 - 49 but Flitwick opener Waheed stayed for 42 and skipper Thurstance (34) and no. 7 Powles (29) put on 57* for 6th wicket to see them comfortably home. Hemel remain in 6th place.
