REPORT

A much changed, but still quite strong, Hemel Sunday 1st XI clinched the Division 1 title of the Chess Valley League with a solid victory by 35 runs over one of their nearest rivals Watford Town, at their home ground, no better way. With the other near competitors all losing Hemel have won the CVL with one game to go. Central to Hemel's innings were 2 knocks from youngster Lutero Corrigan (70) and overseas player Harry Ganley (74). Together they put on 101 for the 5th wicket and Lutero stayed from his no. 3 position to being 7th out to guide the innings along. 274 - 9 from 45 overs. Watford started with an 82 run opening partnership and Riahan Pieris (80) dug in to try and guide Watford along. But Ed Pike (4 - 42) took out key batsmen in the Watford line up and wickets continued to fall as the run rate increased. In the end Watford made it to 239 - 9 from their 45 overs and the day was Hemel's.
