REPORT

There was a rumour going around that Tony Linfoot was seen smiling, or smirking, at the club on Saturday night after Hemel V's had moved back to the top of Div. 12 West after their victory over Eaton Bray. They are now 13 points behind in 2nd and Bushey are 2 points behind them in 3rd. Putting Eaton Bray in Hemel kept them to 202 - 9 in their 40 overs. Jack Boughton was the key with 4 - 41 and there was 2 - 20 from Matt Scears and 2 - 29 from Teddy Butler. Then Sam Wheeler got things going with a run a ball 45 but it still took a 78* partnership for the 7th wicket from Miles Barnard (48*) and Matt Scears (33*) to see Hemel to 206 - 6 from 37 overs.
