REPORT

New Sunday fixture against a roaming side made up of various players from various Middlesex sides. As with a lot of these touring sides they contain various depths of batting and bowling that surprise their hosts. The great bonus of the game was that a draw was one of the possible outcomes and so it proved. Nomads won the toss and batted with opener Jono Vernon-Powell making 64 and no.6 Theo Weatherall coming in and hitting 72* from 31 balls with (6X4,6X). In good Sunday friendly tradition Freddie Lowe was able to give all his out fielders a bowl. Freddie then opened the batting and made 44 from 42 balls but no-one else was able to construct an innings of note 14 from Auzair Ali and Max Clark the next best. Left to the out of batting form Tayyab Sadiq to stay in for 55 balls and 12* aided by Jacob Hodgins (0*) from no.11 to guide Hemel Sunday XI to 127 - 9 from 44 overs and a draw,
