Last Week's Match Reports

Saturday 27 June

1st XI

A frustrating 2 wicket loss to Luton Town & Indians on a levelling pitch at Heath Park. Batting first, an opening stand of 64 from Brett Penny (43) and Hemish Ilangaratne – sponsored by Shire Lofts and promoting Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation – (28) got us off to a promising start but despite 35 from Mark Brazier – sponsored by Stellenbosch Financial Planning, we were all out for 152. Parth Mehta led the bowling with 4-61 and Ed Pike and Brett Penny chipped in with 2 wickets each but LT&I crept home with 155-8.

2nd XI

League leaders Ickleford proved too strong for us as we slipped to a 5 wicket loss. Aaron Wilson (51) and U16 Fin Clark – sponsored by Keynet Solutions – 25 got us going but only Kam Akhtar – sponsored by Trustist Ltd – (18) and Tom Willetts (14) made double figures as we were all out for 149. We took 5 Ickleford wickets before they overtook our score, Jacob Hodgins nabbing 3-54.

3rd XI

A 4 wicket loss to Northwood II. Batting first, Drew Butler continued his good form with 66 but 20 from Tayyab Sadiq was the next best score as we were bowled out for 183. On a good Steel Team Nursery Ground pitch, it was never enough and despite 2-28 from Dil Khan and 2-10 from Adam Moulster, Northwood cruised to 187-6.

4th XI

A sensational 5 wicket win for our 4s against 2nd placed Rickmansworth 3s. Ricky batted first but came up against a rampant Ajay Savania (3-7 from 8 overs) and Matt Scears took 2-16 as they were all out for 112. Sam Wheeler then proved the rock with 47* and despite cheap wickets falling that man Ajay came in at 7 to hit 12* and wrap up the win.

Sunday 28 June

1st XI

Brentham deservedly got a first ever win over us by 4 wickets. Batting first, we hit 254 all out with Oliver West (70), Carter Botha (59) and Rishi Jakkappagol (49) in the runs. Brentham were able to reach 255-6 despite two wickets apiece for Carter Botha (2-21), Sham Akhtar (2-23) and Jacob Hodgins (2-73).

2nd XI

3 wins out of 3 in the CVL for the Sunday 2s as we beat Wealdstone by 2 wickets. Stan Hayden, took 4-38 and Henry Morgan – promoting Cancer Research UK – 3-31 as Wealdstone were bowled out for 167. We were in trouble at 85-6 but Jimmy Smart dug in to score 89* in and see us over the line at 168-8, with 4 balls to go.
