REPORT

Hemel Sunday 2nds lost their unbeaten run of 3 games to Berko. Sunday 1sts in thrilling fashion but still held on to 1st place in CVL Div. 3 on run rate from Berko. Joined up at the top on 12 points by Harrow and Boxmoor. Batting first Berko. Amassed a big score of 273 - 7 from their 45 overs, Tyler James held the Hemel bowling front with 3 - 41 from his 10 overs, Farhan Sadiq chipped in with 2 - 70 from his 10. Big score to chase but Hemel went after it with 63 from Max Clark at the top and 60 from 42 balls from Adam Moulster at no. 4. But the man who led the charge was Tom Willetts who smote 106 from 109 balls (9X4) but was out near the end of the overs. Hemel ended up on 269 - 6 to lose by 4 runs with the skilled batting of Neil Morgan unused as he was called off for a family emergency. So near but so far but still top.
