REPORT

A crunching win for Hemel in a game that lasted only 40 overs. Batting first Preston were skittled out for just 76 in 27.3 overs with only one of their batters, no.8, making double figures. U-16 Lucas Bertin took 3 - 17, fellow opening bowler Darren James 3 - 25 with things wrapped up by Mark Brazier (2 - 24) and Parth Mehta (2 - 6). Hemel took just 13 overs to hit off the runs at 77 - 1 with Brett Penny the only wicket to fall with 36.

Problem was that Redbourn went over to Championship division leaders North Mymms and beat them so Hemel are still 6 points behind Redbourn. Dunstable now dragged into the bottom of the table tussle being 2 points ahead of Redbourn and 8 above Hemel. Redbourn play Dunstable in the last game of the season in 2 weeks time so one of them will stay up.
