REPORT

2 wins on the bounce for Hemel 4rds as they fight to avoid the drop after last years promotion. Key was batting first and scoring runs as they showed they have the bowling to remove a side if they have the runs on the board. This time they made 257 - 8 from their 50 overs with Dil Khan (49) - jug refusal (0 - and Ashkay Shah (50) putting on 100 for the first wicket. Down the order at no.8 the ever reliable keeper Andy Turbutt made 46* as the side put together an healthy score. Then the Hemel bowlers got to work and bowled Holtwhites out for 157 in 46.2 overs to win by 100 runs. Farhan Sadiq (3 - 25) and the recalled from retirement Matt Petchell (3 - 27) led the way in wickets. Unfortunately, as with 1st XI Hemel remain in 9th place in the division as 8th placed Clifton won against Ricky so Hemel remain 19 points behind
