Hemel Hundred Competition Rules

Games are 100 Balls – 50 Balls per Innings.

Overs are made up of 5 Balls with 2 Overs being bowled from each end in succession. Bowlers can bowl 2 Overs maximum per innings (10 Balls). They can bowl consecutive overs if the captain wishes.

Batters retire immediately when they reach 25 runs. Retired batters can return if all of the remaining wickets fall but there is no last man standing.

No Balls will result in 1 run, an additional Ball being bowled and a free hit, Wides are as normal, 1 run and an additional Ball.

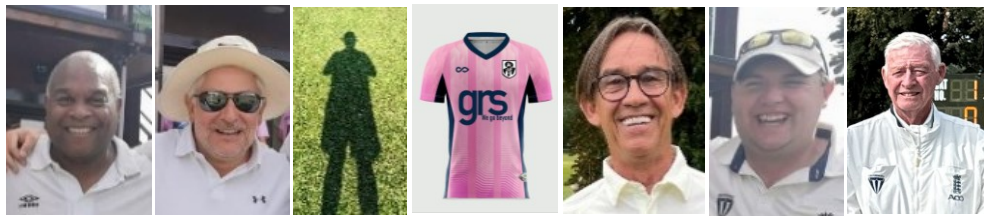

There will be 2 Powerplays (first 10 Balls and last 10 Balls). During the Powerplays only 3 fielders are allowed outside of the 30 yard circle. Only 5 fielders are allowed outside the circle for the remaining Balls.

During the round robin league format, 30 points will be awarded for a win with losing teams getting 1 bonus point for each wicket and for every 10 runs from 50 onwards. The top 2 teams in the league will progress to the Final.
