REPORT

Mentioned last week in the Kenton write-up about the comment made about playing the bottom 2 sides in the CVL Div. Lo $ behold after Kenton went and snagged us for a 300+ score then Graces went and did the same the following wee Not sure if they have been accessing our CVL match write-ups. Net result on the final weekend of CVL games is that Hemel Sunday 1st XI have been relegated from Div. 1 of the CVL. Kenton, by beating Watford Town, have avoided relegation and Graces who won against us here still ended up being in 10th and bottom place. This match. Graces batted first and were bowled out for 332 in 44.5 overs with Jasant Halai going in at 4 and making 100* from 100 balls. The infrequently seen Rushil Dodhia took 4 - 63 in that carnage and Farhan Sadiq returned 3 - 40. Big score to chase and Hemel lost opener Lutero Corrigan in the first over. All bar 2 of the remaining batsmen made double figures but Sam Wheeler's 45 proved to be the highest, followed by Freddie Lowe's 32. Hemel bowled out for 205 in 37.3 over to lose by 127 runs and look forward to reacquainting themselves with Div. 2 next year.
