REPORT

After last weeks drubbing by London Maccabi Vale was mentioned that at least Hemel had games against the bottom two sides in the division to finish off the season. First one at home to Kenton and what do we get ? Another drubbing. Hemel away at no.9 side Graces in last game and from 6th place would hope that results in other games go the right way to avoid the dreaded R. Of course, a win would sort all that out. Here, an early start and as I was arriving Freddie Lowe was bowling their opener third ball. Good start but then the Kenton side proceeded to rattle along at about 5 or 6 an over to reach a score of 310 - 9 in their 45, almost 7 an over. Freddie picked up 3 - 66 and Oliver West, arm turning again, took 2 - 41. His Aussie chum Arnav Pimple from North Mymms picked up 2 - 19, well he is supposed to be a bowler. What happened to Hemel's reply defies belief. Bowled out for 134 in 29.2 overs with only Freddie Lowe sloggiring 71 from 44 balls with 4X4s and 7X5s and the bowler Pimple (28) making double figures. Kenton moved up to 7th and c of relegation with home game against 3rd placed Watford Town next Sunday.
