REPORT

Sambo. already guarenteed a play-off place with the 9th placed side in the Premier division but no favours on offer to struggling for survival in the Championship Hemel. Sawbo won the toss and batted first making 250 all out in 49.1 over Although the emphasis has been on bringing younger players through during the season for Hemel it was the old brigade' who led the bowling attack with Nick Hodgins returning 3 - 44, Brett Penny 2 - 34 and Darren James 2 - 47 From a short bowl Parth Mehta also took 2 - 31. The youth did come through with the batting and U-15 Fin Clark top scored with 33. Aussie Oliver West made 31 to cement 593 runs for the Herts League season but that was as good as it got with Hemel bowled out for 130 to lose by 120 runs. Hemel finished 9th in division to be relegated for first time since 2016. Sawbo. Finished 2nd.
